

10-21-2008

Bob Anthony's review of the performance (excerpt from <http://allartsreview4u.com/>):

Drama and Dance

Is there a greater word than "marvelous"? Well, the Edwin Aparicio Flamenco Dancers with guest stars Carmela Greco and Timo Nunez were "most marvelous" during 90 minutes of fiery flamenco routines at Gala Theater. Edwin Apraricio thrills with his special dance of undulating every muscle in his body from the tip of his tap shoes to the top of his head. [...] Gala Hispanic is so lucky to have an association with Mr. Aparicio and his group...especially Edwin...gets standing ovations after each sequence. Gala will sponsor a free program during the Thanksgiving weekend for flamenco demonstrations and participatory lessons on this art form. The Aparicio group will perform at the theater in early December. It will be a must-see program.